

INTERVIEW SERIES WITH ALUMNI OF 'LOOK EAST POLICY'

MOHAMAD ZAMRI BIN HJ ABDUL RAZAK

Tell us about your study in Japan

Bachelor in Economic. Marketing

What surprised you in Japan

For the 1st time it seems like there are endless amount of things that surprise you. Expensive goods, warm toilet seats, why is there porn magazines for everyone to see at the convenience store, safe to drink from tap water etc.

Look East Policy & you

At that time, this ideal policy was intended for the betterment of the Malaysian economy. It was designed to incorporate the Japanese attitude to work, their moral values, progressive norms, and work ethics into Malaysian work culture.

In the early 1980s, Malaysia's Look East Policy brought the country closer to Japan and successfully stimulated the economy. By 2020, Malaysia aims to become a high-income nation and the government's Look East Policy 2.0 is further strengthening the country's ties to Japan.

Facilitating access to Japanese capital through "samurai" bonds and providing Malaysia with investment, skilled labor and technologies from Japan.

Networking amongst the ALEPS members & Japanese society

Without LEP, different lifestyle

Your favourite:

Person

Yuji Oda, Honami Suzuki (Tokyo Love Story)

Place

Beppu

Food

Tempura, Takoyaki (natto igai, nandemo ii desu, of course the halal one!)

Custom

- Know how to bow, punctuality, ikebana, ocha ceremony
- How do you use "-san," "-kun" and "-chan" to address Japanese?

Future Malaysia & Japan

Malaysia values its bilateral relationship with Japan that has grown from strength to strength. This year marks the 64th diplomatic anniversary between Malaysia and Japan, an important milestone that signifies the long-standing ties between our two nations.

Additional

Advise : Don't miss a chance to make new friends and create new life experiences.

